Rebecca Moll Freed Recognized as New Jersey Law Journal's "40 Under 40"

NEW YORK, NY (July 28, 2008) – Genova, Burns & Vernioia announced today that Counsel Rebecca Moll Freed has been named one of New Jersey Law Journal's "40 Under 40." The winners will be featured in a special issue on rising stars in the New Jersey legal profession in August.

Ms. Freed is a member of the firm's Corporate Political Activity Law Practice Group. She advises corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, trade associations, charitable organizations, social welfare organizations and political action committees on the legal aspects of their political activities. Ms. Freed has assisted clients in both the development and enforcement of political activity compliance policies. Her experience also includes advising clients on corporate ethics. She has counseled both for-profit and not-for-profit entities in this regard.

In addition to her professional achievements, Ms. Freed sits on the Newark Academy Board of Directors – Events Committee.

Ms. Freed received her Juris Doctor degree from Georgetown University Law Center in 2001, and her baccalaureate degree, magna cum laude with high thesis honors, in 1998 from Tufts University.

Ms. Freed can be reached at 212-566-7188 or rfreed@gbvlaw.com.
